(Back row): Phil Rickard ('86), Jim Masrin ('80), "Jungle" Joe Warren ('79), Jason Lawrence ('91), Thomas Weber ('91) and Vimal Lekraj ('74). Joe adds: Phil and Robin are a "JIS couple" and traveled back for our 50th as well; Lane and Amit, another "JIS couple," were also JIS parents and have just delivered the most recent addition to our Alumni ranks with the graduation of their son, James! ('05); Jim, Vimal and I all have kids (aka

"legacies" as in the Animal House sense of the word) attending JIS at the present time; Jim and Vimal's wives are the co-leads for the Parent Advisory Forum at PEL; Arian and I are on the JIS Board of Governors; Doug and I are on the Board of Managers and Board of Trustees, respectively, for FEE. In short, we are a small, but motivated stakeholder group.
